Becoming Enlightened - His Holiness the Dalai Lama 2009-01-06 In Becoming Enlightened, His Holiness the Dalai Lama powerfully explores the foundation of Buddhism, laying out an accessible and practical approach to becoming enlightened and realizing the meaning of emptiness, across a wide range of philosophical traditions, including the "Middle Way" of Nagarjuna and Madhavaka, and the "vacant existence" of the Mahayanists. This book presents an easily understandable and practical guide to realizing the meaning of emptiness, and the nature of wisdom. This book will be of special interest to students of Buddhist philosophy, as well as anyone seeking to understand the nature of emptiness and the meaning of enlightenment.

The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems - Tsong Loden Chokyi Nyima 2017-06-06 The Crystal Mirror of Philosophical Systems is a penetratingly succinct presentation of the central philosophical systems and history of Indian and Tibetan Buddhism. In this book, the Dalai Lama explains the main philosophical traditions of the Buddhist traditions, along with their development over time. The Crystal Mirror is divided into four main sections: the central philosophical systems, the development of each system, the interrelations between the systems, and the development of the philosophical systems in Tibet. This book is an excellent introduction to the central philosophical systems of Indian and Tibetan Buddhism.
